

Valters Kronbergs

Partner, Sworn-in advocate (Latvia and Ontario, Canada)

Languages: English, Latvian

Education:

Queen's University in Kingston, Canada - LLB, 1990

University of Toronto B.A. Hons., 1984

Recipient of the Canadian Labour Congress Book award in History.

Experience:

2003-present Kronbergs Čukste LEVIN, Attorneys at Law – managing partner

2002-2003 EY Law – partner

2000-2002 Andersen Legal - partner

1993-1999 CBM – associate, partner

1992-1993 Sarmite Bulte, Barrister and Solicitor - associate

1991-1992 Fraser & Beatty, Barristers and Solicitors – articling student

Practice profile:

- Successful liquidation of AS VEF Bank;
- Pan Baltic M&A transaction concerning Avesco acquisition of Caterpillar business across the Baltics;
- Legal counsel to Microsoft, DHL, Lidl, Bridgestone, Electrolux, Reckitt Benckiser, Johnson Cilag, BT Latvia Limited, Avon;
- Representing of an international insurance company in the Maxima case;
- Successfully acted for multiple parties from Norway, Spain and UK as sellers of crypto currency platform to a UK based buyer;

- Successfully acted for Celkar Sp z o.o. of Poland in share purchase of SIA Stilimpeks.

In his youth as a university student, Valters was a part time child-care worker for a number of years in Yorklea Childrens' Homes in Toronto, Ontario, giving him experience in the pros and cons of institutionalized child care and awareness of the need for supporting foster care programs. In his current practice, Valters has had some involvement in adoption cases in Latvia and is aware of a number of challenges in the process of placement of children in foster families and families for adoption.